What is Bunco?
Bunco is a social dice game played with 12 players who are divided into three tables of 4 players at each table. But really, any number can play. The object of the game is to accumulate points and to roll certain combinations.

Bunco is played in rounds – usually in teams of two. The Head table controls the starting and stopping of each round. At the end of each round, the two winners from each table move up a table (towards the head table) and the losers stay put. New teams are formed (you don’t stay with the same partner from round to round) and now you have new people to chat and roll with.

At the end of the night prizes are awarded to the “most wins” and “most losses “and the “Bunco” traveling prize.
